Just received the College Bound Organizer. It is even more helpful than I thought it was going to be. This book tells you everything a college advisor will tell you for so much less money. Some of the advice is so simple yet so important. The additional work pages for you to write your information is great. All in one book. This book is a must for students and their parents. I think high school guidance counselors should have one too.

An absolute must for any high school student and his or her parents! I wish this book had been in print the first time I went through the college application process with my eldest child. This guide consists of an A to Z compilation of what students must keep track of throughout their high school years. It is truly a great resource because it provides a great way for staying on top of the process, keeping track of all the details and remaining organized. I highly recommend this book and suggest that it should be purchased when a student starts high school. I just purchased it for my 9th grader because it not only allows her to record her earliest achievements, club memberships and extracurricular commitments now but also gives her the opportunity to look at what she will need to do in the future. Kudos to the authors for providing a resource that was missing from the market!

Finally, a book that busy parents (and students) have been waiting for! This book gives you complete and thorough directions as to how to collect and record your important data for the college applications. I love the part for organizing all your user names and passwords!!! Unless you've been through the process of guiding your child yourself (and I have) you don't realize that you both have the necessary information in ten different places and you both get mixed up with all the test dates and scores, and did you register or not, and where did you save that password? The amount of time lost (not to mention the frustration) is astounding. This organizer will definitely be "the book" for keeping it all together during the emotional and challenging time of applying to college! If you want to get the most out of this book, get it in freshman year and start to record activities, part-time jobs, awards, clubs, etc. Then when you get to junior year (testing and visiting year), you will use it constantly. Great idea.

This book will make any student getting ready to apply to college organized and confident in his/her next steps. In a easy to follow, simple way, this book outlines every step you need to take to make the college application process successful. If you follow the dates and step by step processes that are clearly outlined in this book, the daunting task of applying to college will become a manageable event. I wish this book existed when I was going through the college application process with my son. I am certain we would have had fewer arguments.

This book has given my daughter a sense of what the college search and application process will entail and how she can stay organized and ahead of what's coming. She likes that it is based on real experience, is current and includes anecdotes about students who have been through it before. I enjoyed reading the questions and answers with admissions representatives and guidance counselors. I found their comments to be candid and very informative.

Wish this book had been around for my first college bound student! We found this book very helpful in assisting our second college bound student pull together all the information he would need to succeed. We especially liked Chapter Two which provided a method for organizing a resume. Ask a student what have you done with your free time that will create a picture of who you are and you may get a blank stare...give that student a method to write all down in an organized fashion and suddenly...a resume develops...who knew? We are certain that the tools learned from this book will help our student for years to come. Organization is key for all things, and this book provides those tools for use in the college process and beyond. We will definitely be using The College Bound Organizer for number three...luckily, we have a couple years in between.
