Customer Reviews

The first thing I learned is I should have chosen studying volcanoes for a career when I was younger. Secondly, Hawaii has a magic all of it's own, from the sand to the grass. Vivid and alive it breaths the magic into everything from the plants, trees, to the people, and you of course. And that you have to meet a stranger, to make a new friend... What happens when island fever and a new friend, becomes your every thought? And you finally feel like you've found home?! A place where in your heart you feel like you belong there! I read it in one sitting, I had to know if there was too little time for Gemma to even consider following her heart instead of her head. But some decisions although they deserve thought, are already made before the thoughts to them questions are even given any consideration. All it takes is but one single aha! moment to realize it. You'll just have to read it for yourself to know if and how they get their HEA. Oh, and let's not forget a few steamy melt your panties off moments they share. To be honest I felt like a voyeur (if that's the right word), watching an intimate moment that wasn't mine. But I did so enjoy having those moments shared with me :) . Sorry though, those moments are not my story to tell, besides the author does such an awesome job at telling it like it was...Real and intimate. Don't let the fact that the story is short (well short for me anyhow, left me wanting more lol), stop you from reading this amazing experience that two people share. And just a warning, but you may never think of Hawaii the same ever again! Did I mention that this story is also sprinkled with words of wisdom and sage advice that would help anyone in Gemma's and Keilani's situation.
